

Go Paperless!

CREATE

Use the Kwik-Dealer website portal to generate forms and select "Electronic Signature" as the document generation type. The only requirements are that your customers have their own email addresses and that, at the time of signing, they have Internet access.

EMAIL

Digital copies of the loan documents are emailed to the applicant, the co-applicant (if any) and then the dealership for electronic signing. The process is powered by DOCUSIGN, the leader in digital signing technology, so you and your customers can be sure the process is secure, simple and legally compliant.

SIGN

Documents may be signed from any Internet-enabled device with email access like a computer, laptop, tablet, iPad or mobile phone. Signing is as easy as adopting a digital signature style and clicking a few buttons. Simple prompts walk you and your customers through the easy-to-understand process.

FUND

Once all parties have signed, digital copies of the documents are automatically emailed to the customers, the dealership and to FFC. Any remaining supporting documents may be faxed, saving you money since there are no "originals" to overnight or mail. The digitally signed copies ARE the originals.
